Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Porter entertained a large gathering of friends at an overnight party held at Bassings Beach last Friday. The gala party was held in honor of Ellis and Porter's recent victory in men's 45 and over invitational doubles tournament at Whispering Falls, Maine.

The sanctioned tournament is held annually in conjunction with the Whispering Falls Grange Fair. The Ellises were double celebrants at the Bassings Beach affair, as Mrs. Ellis (Jane) has also won first prize in the Fair's bake-off contest for her baked beans.

Tom Hamilton, vice president of the Gallery of Homes of the South Shore's Cohasset office, Dean & Hamilton, Inc., recently spent two days at an All-Advertising Seminar presented by the advertising department of the Gallery of Homes. Over 70 Gallery of Homes brokers, advertising directors, and representatives from member ad agencies attended the seminar held at the Atlanta Hilton in Atlanta, Ga.

thon sitting, charades and frisbee-throwing being the most popular events.

Porter conducted a tennis clinic for the children, while Robert Sweeney of Elm Street, Cohasset, provided sailing and fly-casting instruction.

Mary Kennedy of Stevens Lane, Cohasset, won the award for the most original beach outfit for her peach Georgette and Cat's Eye sandals, while the Wendell Driscolls, of Fargo, North Dakota, garnered the prize for the guests travelling the longest distance to attend.

Beth Gabaree of, 486 Jerusalem Road, Cohasset, majoring in Computer Science Engineering Technology, has been named to the Dean's List at Wentworth Institute for the second semester. A senior, she is majoring in Computer Science Engineering Technology.

David Campbell of Cohasset was recently appointed manager, Group Department of the Hobbs Brook Agency, Inc., a subsidiary of Arkwright-Boston Manufacturers Mutual Insurance Co. based in Waltham. A native of Beverly Farms, Campbell attended Colby College and earned a BSBA degree in marketing from Babson College. Before joining the Hobbs Brook Agency, he served assistant vice president of William M. Mercer, Inc.

Two Cohasset residents were awarded bachelor's degrees at Ithaca College's 84th commencement exercises. They are: James Allen Hagler Jr., Bachelor of Arts in History, son of Professor and Mrs. James Hagler of North Main Street; and Christopher Greenman, Bachelor of Science in Accounting, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenman of Stoneleigh Lane. Hagler is a graduate of the Lawrenceville School and Greenman of Northfield Mount Hermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan of Atlantic Avenue attended the gala opening of the Water Park at the New England Aquarium. The dedication of Water Park was an early present for Boston's 350th birthday, and coincided with the 10th anniversary of the Aquarium. A magnificent statue of eight leaping bronze dolphins, sculpted and donated by Mrs. Katherine Lane Weems, was the highlight of the evening.

Commander and Mrs. Tyrone G. Martin of Pond Street, and Mrs. Frank Neer Jr. with her daughters Betsy and Susan, enjoyed Navy Night at Pops.

Mrs. Carl Gustafson of Beechwood Street was recently named to the board of directors of the Protestant Social Service Bureau, a Quincy-based agency service for the South Shore communities with adoption and family counseling services.

A luncheon and fashion show will be held at Hugo's on August 1, sponsored by the Scituate Historical Society to raise money to purchase the Old Oaken Bucket homestead. Charles Sumner of Newbury Street will present his fall fashions.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Nisula of North Palm Beach, Fla., formerly of Sankey Road, cited the lethargy of Cohasset residents in not making the quorum during the June 26 town meeting. In the 25 years the Nisulas were residents of Cohasset, they never missed a town meeting or failed to vote in the primaries. Their good citizenship will be missed.

State Representative Mary Jeanette Murray of Margin Street was at the end of a practical joke by her fellow legislators. As the voting board at the House lit up red, meaning no votes for her bill to allow Hull to rent its aquarium to Harvard, everyone laughed. The Majority leader switched to green as he declared: "I release you all," and Mary Jeanette was happy, the bill would move to the Senate for approval.
